Dear Classmate,

As unbelievable as it seems, it will be 50 years ago in June that we left the halls of Newport High School and went out into the world – a group of confident and naive 17 and 18 year olds seeking life’s next journey.

We know the past 50 years have brought a wide variety of events and experiences into our lives. Each of us has grown and changed. Each has discovered the complexities of life beyond our high school halls. So, come join us in a celebration of the friendships that have shaped us and the memories that remain.

You’ll be missed if you don’t attend, so come and help make our 50-Year Reunion one to remember.

See you there!
