50-Year Reunion

REUNION

Dear Classmate,

In past years, reunions may have been about “show and tell,” but this time around, it’s all about “show up and share.”
All differences aside...

Whether you were rich or poor; athlete or an artist; an introvert or extrovert;
It doesn’t matter.

Whether you’re still hot stuff, weathering well, or aging beyond recognition;
Whether your shape is slight or ample; firm or fluffy; Whether your hair is in abundance or a bit in absence...
It doesn’t matter.

Whether you’re happily married (for the first, second, or third time), or divorced; Whether you’re living single or with a significant other...
Whether you come with a date, or come alone...
You know, it just doesn’t matter.

Is our message clear yet?
There really is no excuse good enough to keep you from attending our reunion. We have been through so much together and possess a shared history from the most sensitive time in our lives.

Through this we are linked for life. Can’t wait to see you!
